

TRAINING

Reynoldsburg Division of Police Officers must successfully complete training at an Ohio Peace Officer Training Council approved Academy unless already certified as a police officer by the state of Ohio. A Reynoldsburg recruit will attend the Ohio State Highway Patrol Basic Police Officer Academy. The academy is a live-in program that lasts seventeen (17) weeks. During this time room and board will be furnished for you and you will receive a paycheck of 40 hours per week. At the end of this training the recruit will be required to successfully pass the Ohio State Peace Officers Certification test as well as the Academy's physical fitness standards.

Once certified, the recruit will be required to complete a field training program. During this program, the recruit will be teamed with senior officers who will train and test the recruit to ensure that he/she is capable of working on his/her own
